Indian Horse, Feature Film--Screen Siren Pictures
 1AR Graphic Designer | Production Design by Oleg Savvitski
 This film brings to life the emotional story written by Richard Wagaemase about an indigenous boy who is torn from his family and placed in a residential school. Despite the horrific abuse that he experiences in the school, the story includes hope and his resilience to play junior hockey throughout the 1960s and 1970s. The graphic design of hockey jerseys, banners, and signage was crucial in showing the timeline and his growth within the hockey leagues.

Bella Vita Cucina, Sudbury ON Interior Wall Mural

The mural uses rich colour and several perspectives of European landscape to compliment the dining space. The design includes overlapping landscapes and extends outside of the border in some areas to provide greater depth.
